Time it was,
 And what a time it was,
 It was . . .
 A time of innocence,
 A time of confidences.
 Long ago,
 It must be . . .
 I have a photograph
 Preserve your memories;
 They're all that's left you.

Paul Simon

And the seasons they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and down

we're captive on a carousel of time . . .

We can't return, we can only look
Behind from where we came

I can't believe I ate the whole thing!

YOU put the cat out!

You just can't train nose hairs.

Do you REALLY have to go?

WHO needs to see a doctor?

'At's a spicy meatball!

'AT'S a spicy meatball.

'At's a spicy MEATBALL?

And go round and round and round
In the circle game

And THAT'S the truth.

We get our shirts back if we win.

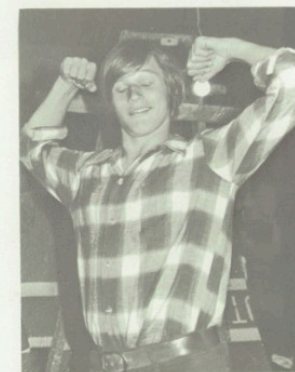

Look - no underarm stains!

Here I come, Honey, ready or not!

I told you people'd stare if you didn't wear a shirt.

Look - no underarm stains!

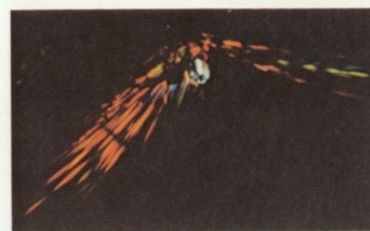

WHO told me you could milk a shrub?

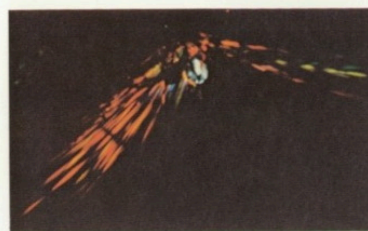

Now here's a subject that will interest all of you...

We may turn back briefly to "This Time Yesterday" but

We may turn back briefly to "This Time Yesterday" but

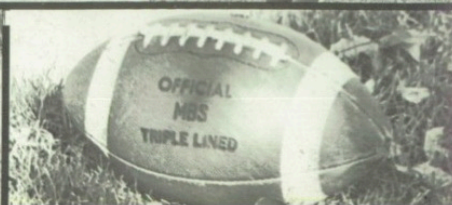

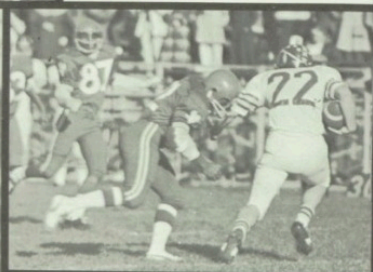

The Yonkers of HELLO DOLLY comes alive for an instant

But even a stop watch

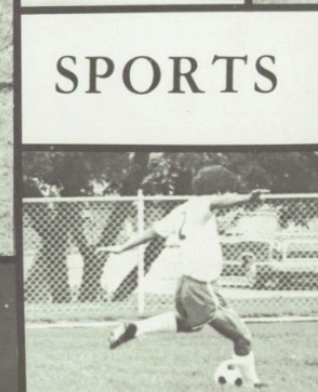

FALL

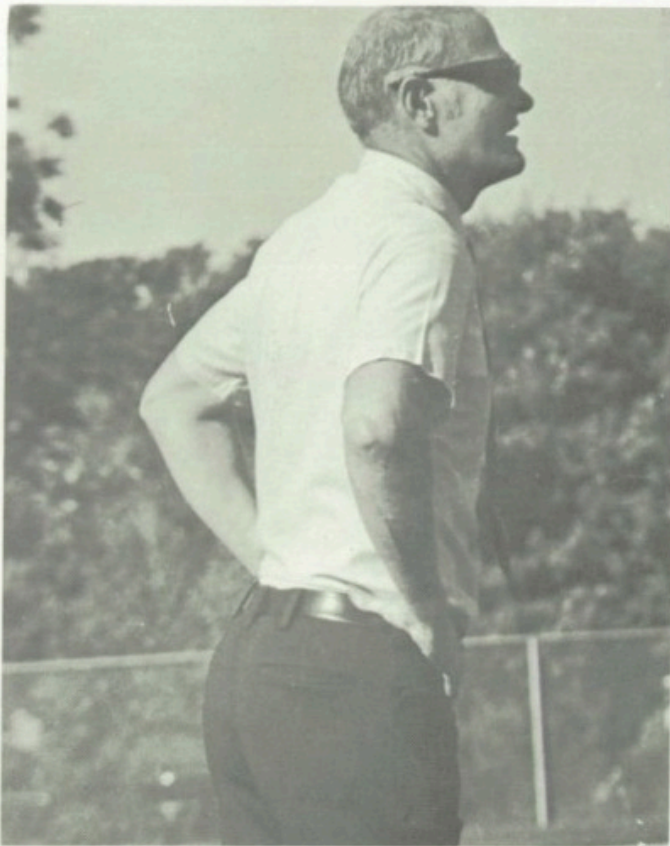

Cannot halt time.

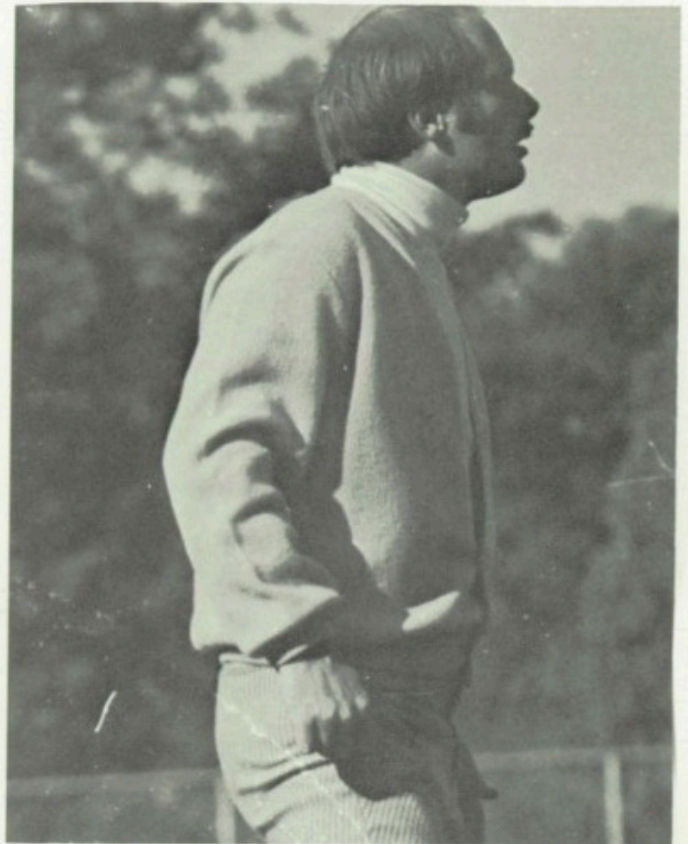

SPORTS

VARSITY FOOTBALL

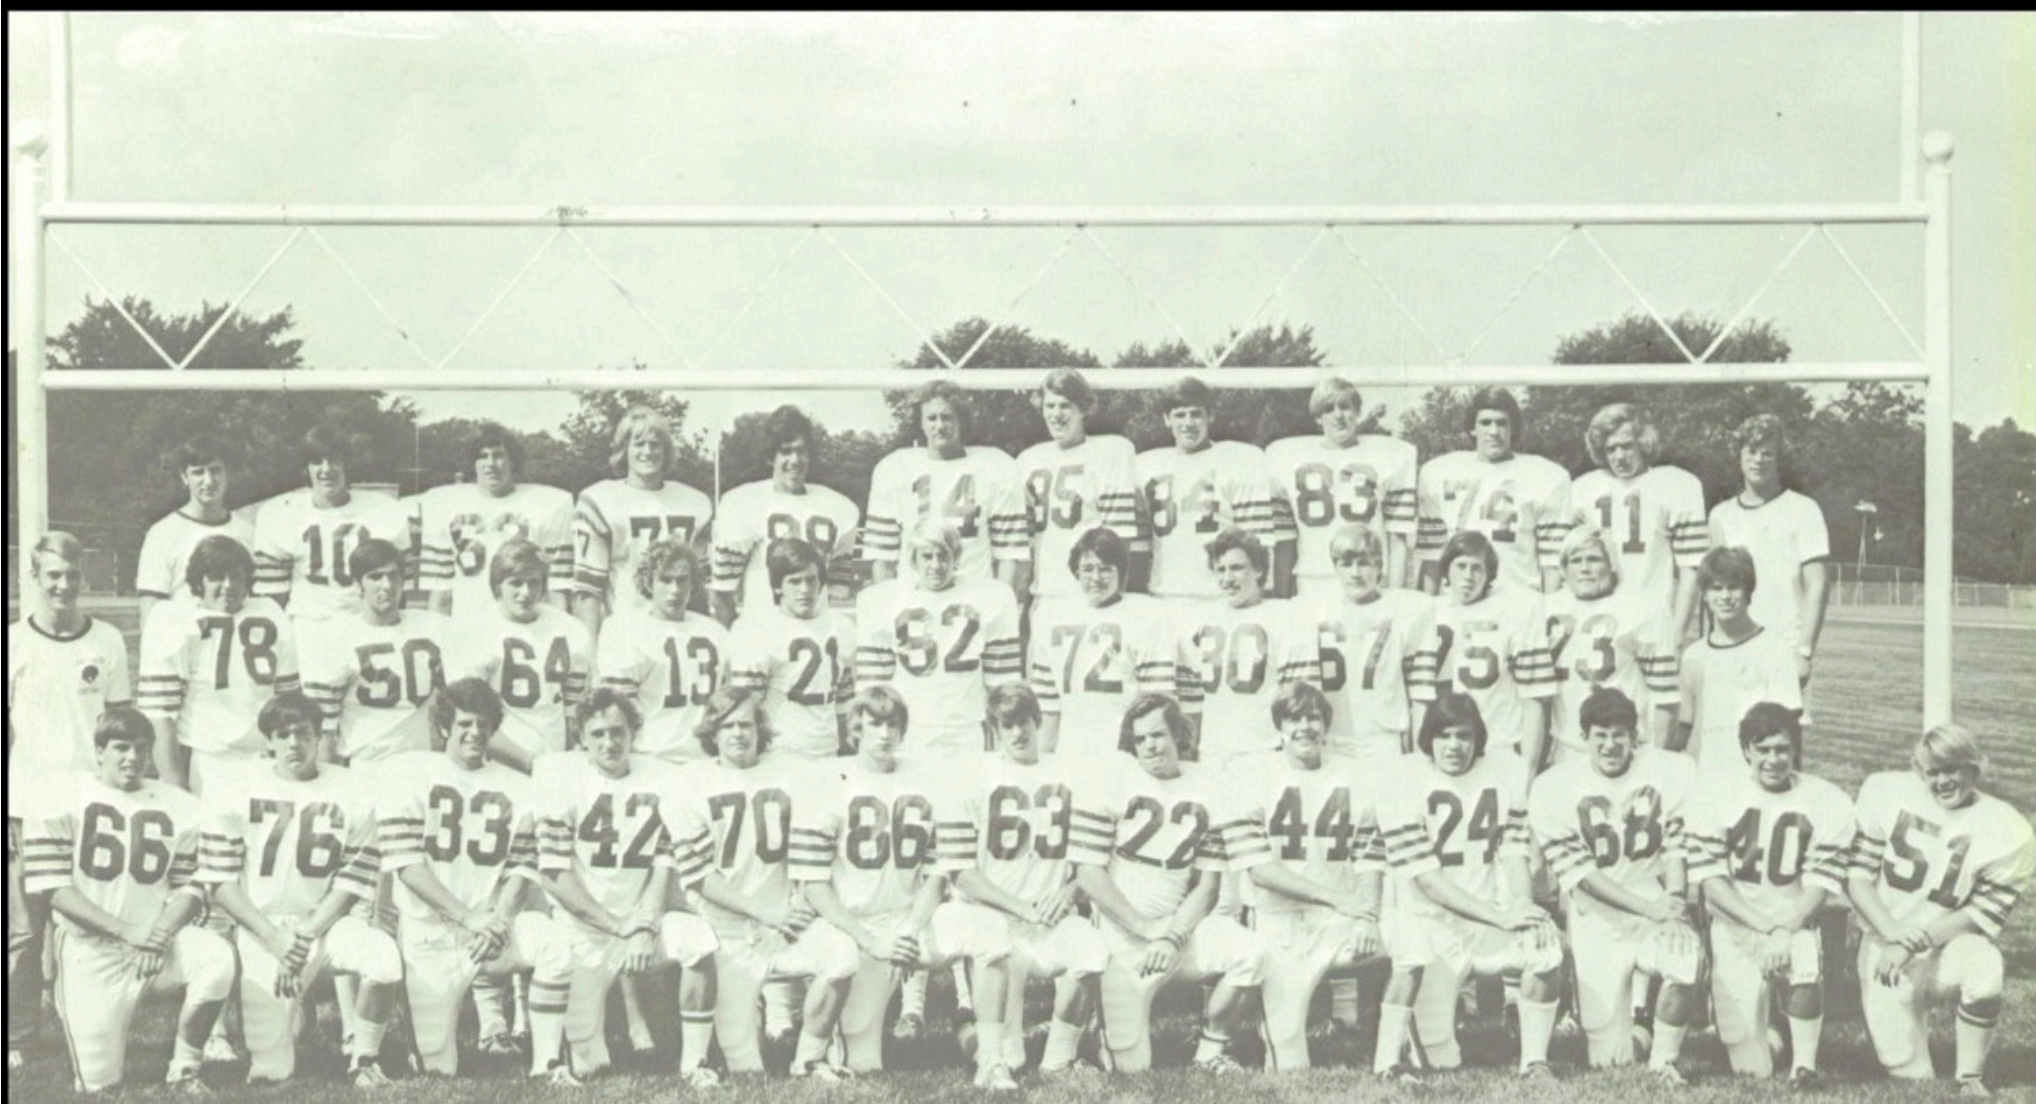

The '73 Scouts had an exciting and successful first season in the new North Suburban Conference, coming up against tougher competition than ever. They came from behind in conference play to place second behind a Libertyville team they had beaten earlier in the season and finished the season with a good winning streak.

Among the many outstanding players was Jim Phillip who set a school rushing record and for his efforts was elected All-Conference, All-County, and All-Area honors. Also sharing conference honors were Eric Carter and Kurt Buchowich.

The stars show the form(s) that made them the five top runners.

Honest, Coach, it just won't stretch further!

This year the LFHS harriers clinched one of their best seasons in years by tying Barrington for the North Suburban Conference championship in their first year of competition with an all-over record of 13-1. The Scout long distance runners ran to the District and Sectional meets and, while they didn't make it all the way downstate, panted and puffed their way through a most distinguished season.

Varsity Soccer

Lake Forest Varsity Soccer, under the fine coaching of Ed Kositzki, ended an up-and-down season with a trip downstate. Hurt by injury to All-State forward Rob Demichelis near the beginning of the season, the team rose above a mediocre record at the start to narrowly beat Highland Park in the L.F. District Championship. Then they upset New Trier East in a game decided on corner shots and came from behind in overtime to beat Maine East 2-1 and win the coveted downstate trip.

The defense, led by Jim Grossman, Tom Amundson, and Dave Bindi, was outstanding this year allowing only 25 goals in 24 games. Scott Blackmun, returning next year, was voted outstanding state-tournament goalie. Halfbacks Rob Lundy, Jeff Seccombe, and Norm Lichtenberger served as the playmakers and assist men for the high scorers up front.

Honors:

Greg Andrew—23 goals (L.F. varsity record)
 Andy Roscher—9 goals, 10 assists
 Jeff Seccombe—6 goals, 13 assists
 Rob Lundy—8 goals, 8 assists

All Conference: Roscher, Seccombe, Andrew, Lichtenberger

The basic purpose of the boys' intramural sports program is to provide after school competitive recreational sports for all boys throughout the school year. All intramural activities are designed as a complement and supplement to the athletic program. Fall activities include flag football and tennis, winter has basketball, floor hockey, table tennis and badminton, and twelve inch baseball completes the program.

"Our goal is not to produce a champion but rather to provide a competitive environment where champions are inevitable," is the philosophy of Mr. Dave McJunkin, the new LFHS swim coach. McJunkin and Mr. George Barry, frosh-soph coach, both started out with a bunch of "losers plus a few "good individuals," but ended up with "winners" and a "team". Finishing the season with a 10-5 record, the team won sixth place in district competition and sent Doug Tennant down-state. At the Awards Ceremony, Bill Camlin took the Swim Scholarship, "Blusher Dave" Daluga the Joe Stein Award, and Noel Hutton the Frosh-Soph honors.

Student Council

"Win some, lose some" – the old cliché describes most political enterprises in this world, and this year's council adheres – but this time they won more. Hosts of the Northeast Illinois District S.C. convention, they elected one of their own, John Siff, to office. They were instrumental in the move to rehire a parking lot attendant, to give girls in interscholastic athletics the same rights as boys, and at year's end, were working on repeal of the 2% grade penalty and the institution of angle parking – among other things...

The Forest Scout is the bi-weekly newspaper at LFHS written and edited by the students with the help of faculty advisor, Mr. Hajost. The main purpose of the paper is to inform students of school events, to air the views of students and faculty, and to report news. The staff is composed of interested and cooperative students from both campuses willing to devote a few hours a week to produce the paper. Despite scheduling problems and various other difficulties, the Forest Scout came out on time. The rise in student interest made this year's paper more varied with the addition of more cartoons, photographs, letters to the editor, and special interest columns.

Math Club

Math Club had many speakers this year. They spoke on topics ranging from the use of computers by the airlines, to the mathematics of soap bubbles.

Computer Science

Due to faulty equipment and faulty minds, not only did not the Computer Science Club do much of anything this year, but they didn't write any copy either.

Science Club

This year Science Club had several speakers and went on two field trips; one to Searles Laboratories, where they saw the new T shaped copper IUD in the making and one to the National Accelerator Laboratories, where they saw the Accelerator.

Debate Club

1974 has been a good year for the debate team. Debating during this school year on the topic, "Resolved: that the Federal Government should guarantee a minimum annual income to each family unit," the novice teams were exceptionally strong and varsity debaters Mari Rowe and Ann Albrecht came in third in their division of SIDL. Two transfer students added to the varsity team's strength. The debate squads participated in three overnight meets, one at the U. of I., one at Augustana College, and one at Bellevue High School. They attended a statewide Student Congress and did exhibition for numerous parent-teacher groups.

Last summer five team members went to a debate institute and more anticipated doing so this summer to prepare for next year's season in which the topic will be prison reform.

National Forensics is THE high school organization devoted to the individual dramatic arts. Members compete with other schools on Saturdays during the school year in such events as: dramatic monologs, humorous monologs, extemporaneous speaking, oral interpretation, and so on and so forth and ad infinitum and learn, among other things, to avoid such phrases as and so forth and so on and ad infinitum.

Drama

Drama Club, IS alive and well and living in LFHS . . . This year the Club's activities ranged from children's theater to puppetry, from farce to adaptations of short stories. The emphasis was on out-of-school ventures, such as performances for library groups and for Country Day School. Anyone interested in acting, reader's theater, set building, or just having a good time is always welcome!

Quantity AND quality describe the makeup crew's work on faces AND bodies in J.B. AND HELLO, Dolly.

Elaborate, complicated and time consuming. Such were the shows the Technical Crew did this year. For HELLO, DOLLY, Margot McMahon worked high up the ladder on the monster paper-mache false proscenium. A bevy of assts. passed up sticky strips of paper from below. Down in the pit, Chris Summa built Dolly's ramp, and Ken Taylor made the lights chase each other around it, a fitting finale for a number that brought a standing ovation. On stage, Ken learned how to use a square to build the projection arch, Dave Faassen fought with the slide programmer, and, during production, Bill Vernon leaped offstage with the disabled scrim which graced the last scene. Later, for J.B., Dave Vernon designed complex lighting, while Doug Price tried to find circuits that didn't exist, and Scott Olson, Mark Kammerer, and Thierry Chaunu made several guest appearances. Pam Steeves played Betsy Ross sewing up a manila rope. Fizzer Monsor tried to explain his name. Cliff Groat tried to make Laura Bugee, Lisa Krimen, Sandy Steeves, and John Munson, into expert lighting-persons. Dick Ryan traded his basketball for a hammer. Mike Tincher chauffeured his animal hearse to MacDonalds, where Dad Bought lunch for everyone.

Each year certain juniors and seniors who have shown themselves to be outstanding in both curricular and co-curricular matters are elected to the honor societies of LFHS. Each is unique: CL honors academic excellence, NHL that plus service to the school, and Q&S service to the school's publications.

Forum

Forum this year revamped its constitution, establishing guidelines to replace its old stringent laws. No longer are members elected by the student body, but all those who are interested in the airing of pertinent and controversial matters are welcomed into membership. Meetings this year "covered" such diverse matters as the energy crisis, the new rule covering unexcused absences, and birth control. BIRTH CONTROL?

Cellar

Cellar, which has been around Lake Forest High School for a long time, is beginning to stand out as a club dedicated to fun — and only fun. In an era when everything has to have a serious purpose, this is almost a refreshing reason to be. This year, as always, Cellar went about its merry way sponsoring dances, dances, and more dances.

Human Relations/People

You can smile
For the lack of something else to do
And no one will laugh
And point to you
If your tears didn't always
Make me feel so bad
Would you still cry
Everytime that you felt sad
I thought I'd heard and seen
Enough to get along
Till you said something
Neither of us knew
And I had no idea
What a good time would cost
Till last night When I sat and talked with you
... John Prine

Human Relations/People did not meet very regularly this year, but they did manage to have a few excellent discussions. Their homecoming window won first place with the slogan, "We'll Cut 'em Up". They once again participated in Shamrocks Against Dystrophy with great success and are still sponsoring a child in India.

Student Action for Education was relatively inactive in this it's fourteenth year. Mostly but not exclusively made up of seniors, they met bi-weekly to listen to, and talk with various speakers including Mr. Lawlor of our Telecom department.

Audio Visual Aides

This year the AV aides were less in number than ever before and yet managed (somehow) to handle things relatively smoothly. With the passing of Mr. Grubb, their work load was much increased. In addition there was a marked increase in vandalism and theft. Nevertheless, Elaine (the one with the cart chained to her wrist) and co. kept the AV department running into oblivion!

Audio-Visual Aides: Jim Hanley, Elaine Gilby (Crew Head), Jeanette Kohr, Juliet Appel

Downey Volunteers

The Downey Volunteers, under the sponsorship of West Campus' Marg. Harlan, is a service club in the true sense of the word. Every week, they spend at least one evening at the Great Lakes' veterans' hospital, performing a number of services and tasks in a true labor of love, their only payment a meal before they go on "duty", their only reward that intangible (not a word synonymous with corny) something known as feeling good from doing good.

This year's exchange (i.e. sex symbol) students: Georges Tomasi, France; Andrew Short, South Africa; Thierry Chaunu, France.

Foreign Interest Club (see above); Kathy Watson, Diane Egerter, Cindy Evers, Mariam Stevens, Mary Moorman, Nancy Brean. Second row: George Tomasi, Gini Chung, Julie Wagner, Karen Wells, Suzanne Divinian, Allison Wagner, Robin Wagner, Elvira Behrind, Third Row: Thierry Chaunu, Scott Wheeler, Jean Chruscicki, Chris Grimstad, Sarah Lambrecht, Andrew Short, Darah Davis

Current Affairs Club: Bill Masters, Lisa Krimen, Toby Davis, Melissa Dunham, Bill Davies, Mike Andres

Foreign Interest

The Foreign Interest Club plans social activities which will help all of the foreign students (A.F.S., Rotary, and private) to become acquainted with our country and customs and which will aid them in making friends at the school. These activities are also geared to teaching our students about the customs of other countries. In the Spring, the Club sells and helps to make pizzas. The profits from the ever popular pizza sales help the local American Field Service chapter to finance the stay of the two foreign students who come to our school each year.

CLAW

This year CLAW embarked on a program of community education and site beautification in addition to its already taxing role as community paper and glass recycling service. In the fall they went house to house in the community to explain their services, the restrictions necessary to operate efficiently, and the ecological benefits to be gained from recycling. They (with their own dirty, little hands) built a fence around their recycling center at the train station and planned to further beautify the site with spring plantings.

Voyageurs

Voyageurs is a club open to anyone with a love for (not to mention a tolerance of) the great outdoors. While most of its members have been on the Quietico trip, all hikers, bikers, canoers, and outdoor lovers are welcome. In addition to their recreational and ecological activities, the club this year sponsored the assembly on endangered species with Jack Harris and his wolves.

Current Affairs

The "currency" of the Current Affairs Club is exemplified by the TIME cover in their club picture taken the week Alexander Solzhenitzin was expelled from Russia. In a year filled with "affairs", past, present, and carry-over, the club's meetings were never dull, sometimes hectic, but always INTERESTING.

Chess Club

LFHS had an outstanding chess team this year, headed by Steve Loring, President, with Second-In-Command, David Haan, President of Vices. These two led a strong club, taking third in State Competition. Their performance in league play was sufficient to put them behind only Evanston THS. The LFHS Chess Club met knights after school to practice chess theory, distracted only by schoolwork and a loud custodial staff, not to mention poor lighting, WCFL, a noisy spectator, cheap equipment, and the virtual absence of money from the school. Despite these handicaps, Mr. Strode and the Chess Club rose to new heights of expertise in the game of Kings and the King of games.

Book Club

Book Club still flourishes in the wilds of West Campus under the gentle tutelage of Mr. Mullin with the enthusiastic support of readers of all shapes and sizes.

Rifle Club

The Rifle Club, this year under the direction of Mr. Strode, continued in its goal of having those who use guns use them wisely and, almost as important, accurately. To this end, they continued in the National Rifle Association's course in skills and in competition. Meeting each Wednesday deep in the bowels of LFHS, the club may not be easily seen — but they aim to be heard!

Ski Club

"When you reach the top, it's all downhill" is not a negative statement in the eyes and runners of loyal Ski Club members. Under Mr. Warfield's direction and with a lot of help from Mother Nature (who was not very cooperative in 72-73) the club spent many happy Wednesdays on the Wilmot slopes and had hopes of even longer trails come spring vacation ... and next year, both as skiers and ski-patrollers.

Ski Club Officers: Jeff Clark, Liz Denton, Carolyn Copenhagen, Pat Barron

Pep Club

Pep Club, guided by Co-Presidents Jan Cooper and Kim Fitzgerald, sponsored a highly successful Homecoming week-end this year. Over 200 couples attended the dance, titled "This Time Yesterday." Publicity chairmen Ann Connor and Jean Rodenwald kept everyone informed about sports events, and as a result, attendance at the games was strong.

Girls' Gymnastics, one of the school's most popular clubs, meets in the fall following tryouts until the club show in mid-February. 1974 saw the most successful show ever, attracting over 600 viewers. Meetings are devoted to practicing the basic skills and, most importantly, to perfecting and advancing those skills. Membership is open to all on a competitive basis and many of those who participate go on to successfully compete on the Gymnastics Interscholastic team which this year is compiling its most impressive record ever.

The Orchesis Club is a dance club made up of twenty-four girls. It is on an audition basis. There are spring auditions for all and fall auditions for freshmen and transfer students. The girls work each year towards a dance concert. The girls must audition their work to be accepted into the concert. Each piece is choreographed and performed by the students. Orchesis is a year club, meeting twice a week until near show time.

And of course they were involved in sponsoring their second successful orange and grapefruit sale. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Carol Cyrus, has decided to save its profits this year and hopefully take another European tour sometime.

"Unofficial" Clubs

A new "unofficial" club this year, the "Anti"-LFHS Club's purpose is to improve the style and quality of education offered here. Members have been carefully screened so that each has a definite and constructive approach to alternative methods of education. Amongst the club's achievements have been breaking the sexual barrier in Electronics and initiating the selling of tea in the cafeteria. The group is currently offering instruction in the manipulation of people and is making confetti. Their basic principle is to promote Equality and to educate for an awareness of different segments of the population. They have cooperated with the Cornelia Wheadon Task Force for the Socialization of Children to meet this end.

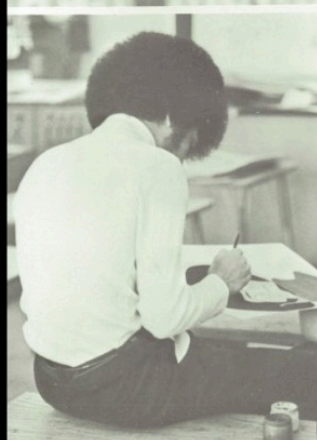

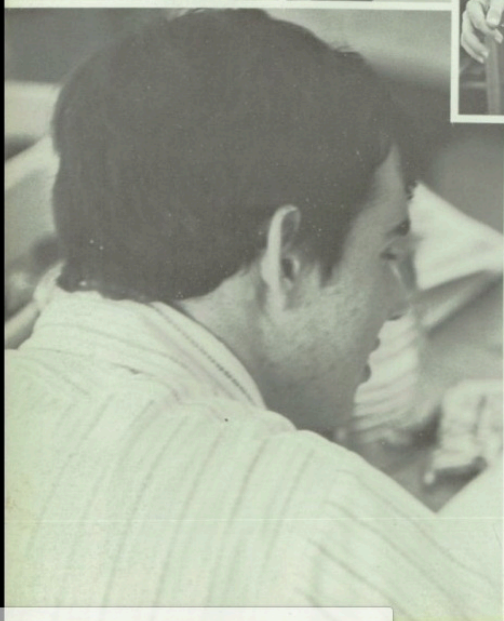

Young Life is not only unofficial but also off campus, being affiliated with the nationwide Christian Action Organization of the same name.

As future generations will accord, the spring of 1974 was the spring of the streaker. Certain LFHS students participated freely in this unadorned activity on the "outside", but due to the controversiality of the sport and the "conservative" nature of the community, LFHS students compromised in the formation of their "Standers" Club. As this book went to press, the club, even with this modification, was having some trouble gaining SAC's approval -- although finding a club sponsor was proving far less difficult than might be imagined.

We barely caught this streaker!

Spring

Weary, though weary is only the case
of being unwound
at the wrong time and place
David put down his head and he covered his face
he asked himself why he had bothered to race
with the sun

He thought that standing still would have been a mistake he knew all along the risks he would take can't help thinking that the whole thing was fake and the race was fixed long before it had even been run
David knew who had won and he waited for dawn

... Steve Goodman

Hang in there, I think I've got the problem solved.

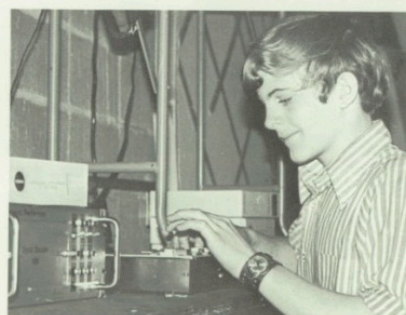

What problem?

Hang in where?

Gee, now I wish I'd taken lessons!

My piano teacher would be proud of me.

You're probably wondering why I've called you all here today.

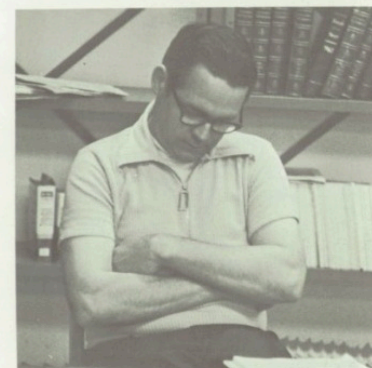

Spring makes me feel so young!

There's more than one way to get ahead.

I still say we'd sell more copies if we had a foldout.

Wake me when it's over.
